

To whom it may concern

I, the undersigned, Noël Amenc, CEO of Scientific Beta, confirm that I had recourse to the services of Mr Enrico Negrini as Interim Financial Director from the period between March 9, 2020, and January 15, 2021.

This period corresponded to the integration of our company into the SGX Group following the acquisition of Scientific Beta and its subsidiaries by SGX at the end of January 2020.

Within the framework of this integration, Mr Negrini set up the group reporting procedures and organised the account closings of Scientific Beta and its French, US and UK subsidiaries, in entirely commendable conditions of effectiveness.

More generally, Mr Negrini took on the role of Financial Director in a multi-cultural environment and within a multi-national legal and tax framework with competence and resourcefulness.
